

The cast and crew of Sherlock Holmes and the Portal of Time would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to our spouses, partners, families, friends, coworkers, neighbours - and of course, our ever-patient pets - for their unwavering support. Whether it was enduring the endless line rehearsals, adjusting to last-minute schedule changes, or being (oh-so-generously) volunteered for all manner of theatrical mischief, your patience and goodwill did not go unnoticed.

We truly appreciate it
